4. Matters arising

There were no matters arising.

5. Chairman's report.

Alan thanked all members and the executive committee their efforts running the centre. The centre has had a good year with no major problems and we are financially in a good position. The future is looking healthy and we already have bookings for 2014/15. We need to carry out a development plan to get new people to take over key positions to eventually take over the work of our older volunteers so that the centre can carry on serving the local community for many years to come.

6. Secretaries report.

Secretary not present.

7. Treasurers report.

Kishor presented the annual accounts for approval saying the centre is financially sound at this time.
